Program Friday 11.5.2018

10:15 am: Arrival Burg Eltz

10:30 am: Exciting and entertaining journey through 850 years of cultural history

Hidden in a side valley of the Moselle, built there on a 70 m high rock, enclosed on three sides by the Elzbach and surrounded by a natural paradise, it alone allows the perfect medieval dream.

<http://burg-eltz.de/en/>

With its eight up to 35 meter high residential towers, its bay windows, roofs, trusses and lace, it is for the spontaneous viewer the epitome of a knight's castle, indeed the "castle par excellence"

Exclusion of liability

For the event: 17th International Germany Meeting 2018 from May 10th to May 13th, 2018

The organiser, Barchetta Club Germany e.V. represented by Reiner Jobski, is not liable, contractually or otherwise, for any damage caused by the participant or a third party in connection with the event, unless the organiser acts willfully or with gross negligence.

Even without claims against the organisers themselves, claims cannot be made against vicarious agents of the organiser. The participant indemnifies the organiser against claims by third parties due to accidents. Cases in which insurance does not cover an incident resulting in damage, but could resort to legal action against the participant, shall not affect the organiser.

The participant is aware that

1. He drives at his or her own risk, even when following the lead vehicle,
2. A reasonable level of driving experience and an appropriate physical constitution is presupposed.
3. Driving can be dangerous and may involve injury risks for yourself and others,
4. A participant does not have to drive any route that appears to be beyond his or her capabilities.

The participant expressly declares

1. That he or she has provided sufficient personal liability, accident and health insurance protection,
2. That he or she is in possession of a valid driving licence.
3. That he or she will not be under the influence of alcohol or drugs or adversely affected by prescription drugs.

Should one or more of the above provisions of this declaration be or become ineffective, the validity of this declaration shall not be affected. The contracting parties undertake to replace the ineffective provision by an effective provision, provided that this does not mean a material change in the content of the contract.

Participation in the event carries risks. The participant declares through his registration that he or she participates in the event at his or her own risk. He or she is responsible for civil and criminal prosecution for any injury or damage caused by him/herself and his/her vehicle (for example, personal, property and consequential damages). Insofar as the driver is not the owner and keeper of the vehicle used by him or her at the event, he releases the person named in the waiver of liability from any claims of the keeper and owner.

Participants provide consent to the use of photographs and video images, taken during the event, for the purpose of publication on the Internet for visual representation in the pages of the BCD e.V. to the decorative design of the website of the BCD.

Statement

The undersigned agrees to the gratuitous use of photographs of his person for the purposes described above. Any use of the photographs for purposes other than those described or placing them on the market by transferring the recordings to third parties is prohibited.
